Plaintiff Lighthouse Resources, Inc., and its subsidiary, Millennium Bulk Terminals—Longview (Lighthouse), sought to construct a large coal export terminal on the banks of the Columbia River in Cowlitz, County, Washington. The Department of Ecology denied Lighthouse's application for a Clean Water Act § 401 certification for the proposed facility and the Department of Natural Resources denied Lighthouse's request to sublease the state-owned

1 aquatic lands on which the facility would have been constructed. Lighthouse brought this suit 2 challenging those decisions on various grounds, including federal preemption and violation of 3 the dormant Commerce Clause.

4 After rulings by this Court dismissing some of Lighthouse's claims, and abstaining on 5 others, Lighthouse appealed to the Ninth Circuit. However, in December 2020, while the 6 appeal was pending, Lighthouse, Millennium, and related companies filed voluntary
 7 bankruptcy petitions in the bankruptcy court in Delaware. Shortly thereafter, Lighthouse 8 divested itself of the property on which the terminal would have been constructed, and sold all 9 or substantially all of its remaining assets. The Ninth Circuit dismissed the appeal as moot in 10 March 2021.

11 Lighthouse's bankruptcy and subsequent divestment of its interest in the terminal
 12 property means that Lighthouse no longer has a stake in the outcome of this case. As a result, 13 the case is moot and should be dismissed with prejudice. Maldonado v. Lynch, 786 F.3d 1155, 14 1160–61 (9th Cir. 2015); Pub. Utils. Comm'n of State of Cal. v. Fed. Energy Regulatory 15 Comm'n, 100 F.3d 1451, 1458 (9th Cir. 1996) (case was moot when the project proponent 16 abandoned its proposed project). Plaintiff-Intervenor BNSF Railway Company has no 17 objection to the case being dismissed.

18 The parties agree that there is nothing further to litigate in this case and that it may be 19 dismissed with prejudice as moot, without fees or costs to any party.

20 DATED this 27th day of April 2021.
